Dear Board of Trustees,

There is a consideration item in the packet to approve an agreement with the City of Columbia to provide sanitary sewer service in this area. It has been reviewed by both City and District legal. Subsequent to this agreement, this would be routed to City Council for their approval, and the Developer will be required to finalize and execute and agreement with the District to pay connection fees, legal fees, and design the system in compliance with BCRSD Standards. The tract in question is below:
